They All Gather Together

Re-Membering the Body

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER CHRISTMAS DAY / EPIPHANY, YEAR C

The old saying is true, "If you want to go fast, go alone; but if you want to go far, go together." Let us gather together.

I Will Be With You

Re-Membering the Body

FIRST SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY / BAPTISM OF THE LORD, YEAR C

So, if last week was about community, this week ought to be about the individual. Right? Well, no, not really.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, YEAR C

What Concern is That?

Where is our mission field? That's the question behind this week's theme for Ordinary Time. And the quick answer is, right where you are...

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, YEAR C

As Was His Custom

Why do we do what we do week after week? There is power in ritual; there is presence in repeated action, in habits that build up...

Where You Are: Far Horizons

9 <small>February 2025</small>		<small>FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, YEAR C</small> Left Everything and Followed <small>We are talking about priorities this week. In what do we put our trust? By what scale do we measure our value? This could be a day for a statement of faith to remind us where our allegiance lies....</small>
16 <small>February 2025</small>		<small>SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, YEAR C</small> Rejoice in that Day <small>We are familiar with the Beatitudes, Matthew's version of these sayings from Jesus. We aren't as well versed in the Sermon on the Plain, which is our text for this week....</small>
23 <small>February 2025</small>		<small>SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, YEAR C</small> Do to Others <small>You might argue that listening is something we do well. We gather week by week and listen to sermons, listen to the choir sing, and listen to the leaders guide us through the liturgy. But are we recall...</small>
2 <small>March 2025</small>		<small>TRANSFIGURATION SUNDAY, YEAR C</small> Astounded at the Greatness <small>Transfiguration is about astonishment. It is about amazement. It is about awe. It's something that might be hard to capture in worship in your overly familiar sanctuary with the people you know so well...</small>

SUSTAIN IN ME
ASH WEDNESDAY, YEAR C
Sustain in Me
Ash Wednesday begins our Lenten journey, and it can be – needs to be – both an individual and a corporate experience....

RESCUE ME
FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT, YEAR C
Rescue Me
As we worship today, let us celebrate the Christ who knows us and our journey because he has walked this same lonesome valley....

CONCEAL ME
SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT, YEAR C
Conceal Me
Let worship give space for being this week. Sometimes that is silence. Sometimes that is prayer. Sometimes that is song. Wherever you make the space for sanctuary, for protection, for a plea to God to...

MY SOUL CLINGS
THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT, YEAR C
My Soul Clings
The Christ we cling to often can be found in the people around us. The faith we cling to can be seen in the relationships of faith. We don't cling to abstract ideas, but to real incarnations lived bef...

STEADFAST LOVE
FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT, YEAR C
Steadfast Love
Worship is catching our breath in the busyness of living. It is that moment when we pause and reflect and remember who we are and whose we are. We need selah moments in our lives daily....

FILL ME WITH LAUGHTER
FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT, YEAR C
Fill Me with Laughter
The psalm for this week has a hint of overcoming. While the psalmist doesn't say much about what has been overcome, there is the remembrance of rescue....

OPEN THE GATES
PALM/PASSION SUNDAY, YEAR C
Open the Gates
This day is surely the most paradoxical of any on the liturgical calendar. Is that a controversial statement? Perhaps, but it seems true....

YOU HAVE LOOSED MY BONDS
MAUNDY THURSDAY, YEAR C
You Have Loosed My Bonds
When we rise from the Table or from washing feet, we rise to a life of Spirit-directed service. We know that such a life will gather others, and together we will go to this brand-new home....
