WEEK 2
What Concern is That?

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, YEAR C
What Concern is That?
Where is our mission field? That's the question behind this week's theme for Ordinary Time. And the quick answer is, right where you are....

WEEK 3
As Was His Custom

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, YEAR C
As Was His Custom
Why do we do what we do week after week? There is power in ritual; there is presence in repeated action, in habits that build up....

WEEK 4
In Your Hometown

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, YEAR C
In Your Hometown
Developing a habit for regular gathered worship is an essential part of our growth as disciples and our witness to the world around us and an effective foundation for the work of transformation....

Where You Are: Far Horizons

9 February 2025		<small>FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, YEAR C</small> Left Everything and Followed We are talking about priorities this week. In what do we put our trust? By what scale do we measure our value? This could be a day for a statement of faith to remind us where our allegiance lies....
16 February 2025		<small>SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, YEAR C</small> Rejoice in that Day We are familiar with the Beatitudes, Matthew's version of these sayings from Jesus. We aren't as well versed in the sermon on the Plain, which is our text for this week....
23 February 2025		<small>SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, YEAR C</small> Do to Others You might argue that listening is something we do well. We gather week by week and listen to sermons, listen to the choir sing, and listen to the leaders guide us through the liturgy. But are we really...
2 March 2025		<small>TRANSFIGURATION SUNDAY, YEAR C</small> Astounded at the Greatness Transfiguration is about astonishment. It is about amazement. It is about awe. It's something that might be hard to capture in worship in your overly familiar sanctuary with the people you know so well...

Steadfast Love: A Lenten Playlist

5 March 2025		<small>ASH WEDNESDAY, YEAR C</small> Sustain in Me Ash Wednesday begins our Lenten journey, and it can be – needs to be – both an individual and a corporate experience....
9 March 2025		<small>FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT, YEAR C</small> Rescue Me As we worship today, let us celebrate the Christ who knows us and our journey because he has walked this same lonesome valley....
16 March 2025		<small>SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT, YEAR C</small> Conceal Me Let worship give space for being this week. Sometimes that is silence. Sometimes that is prayer. Sometimes that is song. Wherever you make the space for sanctuary, for protection, for a plea to God to...
23 March 2025		<small>THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT, YEAR C</small> My Soul Clings The Christ we cling to often can be found in the people around us. The faith we cling to can be seen in the relationships of faith. We don't cling to abstract ideas, but to real incarnations lived before...

30 March 2025	 <small>FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT, YEAR C</small>	Steadfast Love Worship is catching our breath in the busyness of living. It is that moment when we pause and reflect and remember who we are and whose we are. We need set-aside moments in our lives daily....
6 April 2025	 <small>FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT, YEAR C</small>	Fill Me with Laughter The psalm for this week has a hint of overcoming. While the psalmist doesn't say much about what has been overcome, there is the remembrance of rescue....
13 April 2025	 <small>PALM/PASSION SUNDAY, YEAR C</small>	Open the Gates This day is surely the most paradoxical of any on the liturgical calendar. Is that a controversial statement? Perhaps, but it seems true....
17 April 2025	 <small>MAUNDY THURSDAY, YEAR C</small>	You Have Loosed My Bonds When we rise from the Table or from washing feet, we rise to a life of Spirit-directed service. We know that such a life will gather others, and together we will go to this brand-new home....
